It is stated that 2,000,000 orange trees have been planted in San Bernardino County, Cal., since January 1, 1890.

The number of floods in China last year was remarkable. Scarcely a province escaped, and the distress was widespread.

If the discoveries of gold in China prove to be valuable, the Chinese immigration question will, it is hoped, become a source of less trouble to the legislators on the Pacific coast.

The proposed Nicaragua Canal, to unite the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans, will cost $35,000,000. The distance between the oceans is 169 miles, but only twenty-nine miles of canal will have to be dug.

It may be interesting to some of the expert baseball players, who think they are making a good deal of money when they are paid salaries amounting to $5000 a year, to learn that Francisco Sanchez, a Spanish bull-fighter, gets $10,000 for a single appearance.

What promises to be one of the most valuable productions in the newly opened Sioux country, lies in what is known as the Grindstone Buttes. Experts pronounce the stone superior to the Huron (Vt.) ledge and the ledge at Berea, Ohio, where most of the grindstones of the present market are quarried.

Since 1880 the value of Southern property has increased from $2,913,438,093 to $4,320,166,400. The railroad mileage has been doubled, the cotton crop increased by a million and a half bales, cotton mills have been doubled in number, and that section produces five times as much pig iron as it did ten years ago.

The dwellers in northern countries are beginning to find out that beet sugar is a product particularly adapted to their cold climate. Russia has hundreds of sugar factories. This is an industry which should commend itself to the farmers and manufacturers of the United States, as it would render them independent, in the manner of sugar at least, of the South American countries.

It seems America is not the only country where a vast discrepancy appears between the price received by the producers of many articles of food and those paid by the consumer. Thus a Governmental inquiry has been going on in London upon the milk question, and it appears that for every twelve-gallon can of milk the farmer receives six shillings, the railroad charges one shilling for transportation, but the consumer pays sixteen shillings, thus giving the dealer much more than producer and carrier combined.

The French Government, admonished by the comparative dearth of births, has decided to give certain advantages to fathers of more than seven children. A census has accordingly been taken, and the results are of an interesting character. It appears there are 2,000,000 households where there has been no child; 2,500,000 in which there was one; 2,300,000 two children; 1,500,000 three; about 1,000,000 four; 550,000 five; 350,000 six; and 200,000 seven or more. It is a curious fact, says the Troy Press, that increase in wealth is almost mathematically marked by diminution in progeny.

Out of a total number of 29,007 students at the German universities, 1930 are non-Germans, 1581 being European, and 548 having come to the seats of learning from other parts of the world. Of these latter 438 are from America, 90 from Asia (mostly Japanese), 11 from Africa and 9 from Australia. Of the European foreigners, Russia sends 331; Austria-Hungary, 295; Switzerland, 253; Great Britain, 117; Greece, 49; Turkey, 44; the Netherlands, 43; France, 37; Luxemburg, 34; Roumania, 33; Bulgaria, 31; Scandinavia, 29; Italy, 27; Serbia, 27; Belgium, 26; Denmark, 5; Spain, 2; and Portugal and Lichtenstein each 1.

The subject of the economical preparation of several textile materials which can be easily grown in the Southern States is just now attracting much attention. Some experiments have been recently made by the Agricultural Department with extra fibre, which, the New York Times says, shows that this product may easily substitute the imported jute. If it can be produced cheaply enough. The whole difficulty is in the want of the requisite machinery. The raw material is plentiful and cheap enough, but its successful manufacture has not yet been achieved. The same may be said of the cotton stalk and of ramie, but it seems that American mechanics should be able to circumvent the difficulty if only their attention be drawn to it.

An abused sailor at Newport, R. I., has sued the Government for $10,000 damages for ill-treatment.

A prize of $500 has been offered by the British Sunday-School Union for the best tale on gambling, "to be drawn as far as possible from actual life," and "to vividly depict the evils of gambling."

Tushkuroff, the Russian traveler and ethnologist, points out in recently published statistics that there are in the Russian army 400,000 heathens and 80,000 Mahometans, the latter forming seventy per cent. of Russian Cossack regiments.

Rutherford B. Hayes, who served under the late General Crook during the war, in a tribute to his memory, says: "No statesman or philanthropist in his closet has framed theories for uplifting the red men more worthy a just, generous and powerful nation than the practical measures which General Crook devised."

Railroad commissions have now been established in about two-thirds of the States of the Union. Curiously enough, no commission has yet been created in New Jersey, a State whose railroad interests are known to be important, though commissions have been established in a number of, from a railroad point of view, less important States.

The pneumatic dynamite guns of the dynamite cruiser Vesuvius having been duly tested and found to answer contract requirements, the only test remaining in connection with the vessel is that of the horse power of her engines. Each of the three guns of the Vesuvius hurled 200 pounds of dynamite considerably over a mile, and Secretary Tracy has signified his satisfaction at the results attained.

The cost of the proposed Nicaragua Canal is now placed at $53,000,000. The distance between the oceans is 169 miles, but only twenty-nine miles of canal will have to be dug. The San Juan River must be deepened and some artificial basins constructed in the valleys of other streams. Lake Nicaragua affords fifty-six miles of free sailing. The Suez Canal, which was cut out of the soil and sand for 100 miles, cost $81,000,000.

A disciple of London's "Jack the Ripper" has appeared in Moscow. A man having the appearance of a commensal, he left a parcel lately at the palace of the Governor-General of the town, saying it contained some articles ordered at a shop. The parcel when opened was found to contain the head of a woman who had been murdered on the preceding night in a dark street, and whose body had been cut up and placed in two canvas sacks. With the head was a letter, the writer of which said that he and a companion hoped to surpass the atrocities of "Jack the Ripper," and they had only just begun operations.

Swedish colonization will soon be an accomplished fact in Vermont. Mr. Valentine, the Commissioner of Agricultural and Manufacturing Interest, is just completing arrangements for settling a dozen families from Sweden in Verbois, a town about thirty miles from the capital of the State. The people of the town are said to be "thoroughly in earnest regarding the proposed colonization scheme," and the Citizens' Committee offer the new settlers a dozen farms of from seventy-five to one hundred acres each, at prices ranging from $2 to $5 per acre, and "also agree to loan $25 in cash and furnish a cow for a filoplated period to each family." It is expected that about thirty Swedish families, numbering one hundred and fifty persons, will be established in Vermont the coming spring. In the opinion of the New York Tribune this experiment in repopulating the deserted farms on the New England hillside will be observed with deep and general interest throughout the country.

Captain Boutelle, who is in command of the United States troops stationed in the Yellowstone Park, gives a very gratifying account of the condition of affairs there. The Captain said that the forest fires, which were formerly so prevalent, have been checked, and during the past year no fires of any consequence have broken out. He also said that not a gun had been fired during the year with the confines of the park, and as a result the elk, deer, buffaloes, mountain lions, bears, beavers and other wild animals are increasing rapidly and becoming quite tame. He mentioned it as a curious fact that the animals seemed to know that they were safe in the park. They seemed to have no fear in the presence of man while in the park, but if they happened to be outside of the limits and a man came in sight they at once ran away. "The herds of buffaloes, deer, etc., are increasing in number, and the fear that these animals will become extinct, the Captain said, would not be realized as long as the park continued to be protected from the forays of the hunters."

Non-Resident Tax Sale.

The non-resident proprietors of the unorganized towns of Averill, Ferdinand and Lewis and Avery's Gore, Warren Gore and Warner's Grant, are hereby notified that the tax due on the grand list of the year 1889, approved by the Legislature of Vermont, is hereby notified that the same is due and payable on or before the 1st day of May next, and in default of payment the same shall be sold to the highest bidder for cash at public sale on the 1st day of May next, at the town clerk's office in said towns and counties.

"Oh! Dear, What can the Matter Be?"

Elsewhere we give "Vermonters" space because he asks it, but we are compelled to say that we believe the aim of "Vermonters," instead of "seeking light," is to put the Herald in a false position.

First, "Vermonters," you take a sentence from The Landmark, and which the Herald gave the proper credit for, and assume that the editor of the Herald who has a personal knowledge of the facts therein set forth.

Now the article in question doesn't even indirectly allude to Col. Woodbury, unless saying that A. is an honest man, who pays his debts with 100 cents on the dollar, is equivalent to saying that B is a dishonest man who compels his creditors to accept a percentage.

The Herald has not, nor have we seen a Page paper that has said a word derogatory to the character of Col. Woodbury as a private citizen, as alderman or mayor of Burlington, or as Lieutenant Governor of Vermont, nor as a soldier. Here is what the Herald did say of Col. Woodbury:

March 11.—Col. Woodbury was a brave soldier, a successful and enterprising business man, and a genial and courteous gentleman whom Vermonters did themselves honor in electing to the office he now so ably fills.

April 11.—That Col. Woodbury was a brave soldier, a successful and enterprising business man, and a genial and courteous gentleman whom Vermonters did themselves honor in electing to the office he now so ably fills.

Your position, Vermonters, reminds us very much of the chap, who was so anxious to become a martyr, that he put a chip on his shoulder and then cried because no one cared to knock it off, and thus give him an opportunity to claim that some one had abused him.

As to the alleged fact that a majority of the people of Vermont are opposed to the promotion rule, we maintain that a very large majority of the Republicans of the State are in opposition to the promotion. As an instance we point to the reception given in the Convention four years ago to the declaration that if Col. Fuller was nominated and elected he would not in two years be a candidate for Governor. Col. Fuller was nominated with a rush, and simply because the convention was anxious to break down the promotion rule. This we know from personal observation, being a delegate from the town of Brighton at that convention. We also refer to the consensus of opinion from leading Republicans from all sections of the State, published in the Vermont Watchman last Autumn, before it was known who or how many gubernatorial candidates there would be. At the very outset of this campaign nearly three-fourths of the papers of the State, without expressing any preference for Page declared themselves opposed to this rule.

"It is unavoidable that Col. Woodbury is not only in favor of rings, so called, but that he is a member thereof in good standing," etc. Upon this point we refer Vermonters to Capt. Geo. H. Blake of the Barton Monitor, a G. A. R. Comrade, and a gentleman who for truth and veracity stands second to no man. Furthermore we say that it is an impossibility for a man holding the office of Lieutenant Governor, knowing that position to be a mortgage upon the Governorship for the succeeding term, not to use all proper means during the Legislative session to bring about a foreclosure of the mortgage. It may not formulate itself into a "Ring," but in fact is just as impossible as it is for Collector Benedict to manage his customs office and his newspaper so strategically that the one does not know the operations of the other, as the St. Albans Messenger would have us believe.

We do not say that Col. Woodbury is in any ring, but we do say that if there is any political ring in the State it is certainly supporting Woodbury.

With Vermonters we believe in "reward for faithful service." We recognize that Col. Woodbury has been faithful in public service, and claim that in his city as well as his State, such reward has been meted out to him. We believe now in rewarding another faithful public servant. For many years Mr. Page as member and chairman of the State Republican Committee has done most valiant service for his fellow citizens. (And we must not forget that the battles in times of peace may be just as necessary and bravely to be fought as the battles in times of war.) Having received of the fruits of his labors, let us tender reward in grateful acknowledgment. Further, we believe that at this time, in view of the questions which will arise during the coming term—questions largely of finance—Mr. Page has to a greater degree than Col. Woodbury the necessary qualifications.

We are not unfriendly to Col. Woodbury; unless, our first preference being given to another, who is certainly equally as worthy, be called such, which we think no sane man would claim. The papers supporting Mr. Page do not attack Col. Woodbury with bitterness. We know that idle rumor has spoken of him as proprietor of the Van Ness House, but we sincerely believe him to be a consistent temperance man, strongly supporting our prohibitory laws, notwithstanding the Rutland Herald, the leading high license paper in the State, rallies all its forces around his banner.

We have alluded to the fact that no paper favoring Mr. Page's candidacy has cast any slur, or made any unjust attack upon the private character, or private career of Col. Woodbury. This honorable position is entirely in keeping with the cause they espouse. And we would, for the good name of the State, that as much could be said for the papers on the other side. We will not charge to Col. Woodbury some of the malignant designs and cowardly insinuations against the character of Mr. Page which have come before us in the columns of his leading supporting paper, for we have far too much respect for him. But when an attempt is made to mislead and prejudice the minds of old soldiers and patriotic citizens against Mr. Page by insinuating that he was a coward in the dark days of the Rebellion, we repel the false and unadvised attack with scorn and indignation. It is unbecoming the editorial chair of a leading journal, as well as unworthy to come from the mind of one occupying the most lucrative official position in the State. Hon. Henry Ballard of Burlington, a warm friend of Col. Woodbury, Capt. Blake of Barton, a brother comrade, as well as Col. E. B. Sawyer, a man standing high in G. A. R. circles, repudiate with decided emphasis and deny the charge. It is susceptible of certain proof that in 1861 it was the desire of Mr. Page to enlist under the Old Flag, but the earnest entreaties of an invalid father deterred him from so doing. Did Mr. Page absent himself during the war because he was not a patriot? Ask the old soldiers of Hyde Park who very soon after the war heartily endorsed him for continued service in both branches of our Legislature.

Your last questions, Vermonters, asking if Col. Woodbury's services as a soldier, his empty sleeve, and his sufferings for the cause of human liberty should operate as a bar to his further preferment, is simply putting a chip on the other shoulder and begging someone to knock it off. In the present exigencies of the State a majority of the voters think the executive and financial ability of Mr. Page will be more useful to them than Col. Woodbury's war record, however brilliant.

Finally, Vermonters, doesn't it require a great stretch of even your vivid imagination to arrive at the conclusion that this is in any way an unappreciation of Col. Woodbury's services as a soldier? Being a good soldier doesn't directly qualify a man for the performance of civil and executive duties.

For Member of Congress, Second District, Gen. W. W. Groat.

Col. Geo. W. Hooker has formally taken the field as a candidate for Member of Congress from this district in place of Gen. W. W. Groat. It has been in the air for a number of years that Col. Hooker had a hankering after this position, but he has never quite dared to do anything more than groutly intomate his willingness to be a congressman. He has never felt it quite safe, till now, to come forward and squarely put himself in opposition to Gen. Groat. The fact is that during the past two years Gen. Groat has had to perform the most difficult and thankless of all the many unpleasant duties that fall to the lot of Members of Congress—that of recommending for appointment postmasters for the fourth class offices in his district. For every little petty post office there are many candidates; a government office being to the average mind the height of all earthly preferment. Post offices are no exception to this rule. Gen. Groat thought it best to let the patrons of the different offices decide by vote which of these candidates they preferred to "lick their stamps," and pass out their newspapers. A wise plan; and one that is likely to put the best and most popular man in office. But it has one drawback. Every defeated candidate seems to feel that in some unaccountable way Gen. Groat is responsible for his not being so much thought of at home as his neighbor who got the most votes. Therefore he goes around growling with his sorehead, and because it won't do to pitch into his neighbors who know him and didn't vote for him, he seeks to vent his spleen upon Gen. Groat. Just why, it would be hard to tell. Col. Hooker was quick to see this state of affairs. It gave him courage to put on his war paint and enter the lists; and no doubt he will try to work the sorehead feeling for all it is worth. We have always admired Col. Hooker. He is one of the most impressive, genial, friendly men in the State. No officers' reunion, or any kind of public dinner, would be quite perfect without the presence of Col. Hooker. His rubicund countenance gives grace and dignity to the main agricultural horse trots of the State. Vermont could not spare Col. Hooker. He does more than any other man to keep alive and warm a friendly feeling in the State. But Gen. Groat has been an honest hard working, painstaking representative of the voters of the second district. He has been vigilant and sleepless in looking after their interests. His course upon all public questions has been such as to reflect great credit upon the State of Vermont. He has a much larger and broader influence in congress than any new man could have. He is a good man to tie to. The Second District cannot afford to lose the services of Gen. Groat in congress; and as we believe his reelection will be for the greatest public good, the Herald will continue to give the General its most cordial support.

Local and General Notes.

There is a little juvenile at the house of Mr. Editor, consequently the wheels of matrimonial life run very smoothly.

In the absence of the pastor, Mr.
Porter H. Dale will conduct the services in the Congregational Church next Sunday.

Eddie Noyes, who is attending school at Westbrook, Me., came home for a short vacation last Friday, returning on Monday.

We very much regret to state that Rev. E. J. Koon is again prostrated, and his return to Island Pond, if ever, is now a matter of doubt.

The office for our national bank is almost completed, and it forms a substantial improvement to the new block.
The bank will be ready for business next Monday.

The church sociable at the residence of Mr. Allan Moyle last Tuesday evening was highly enjoyed, an unusually pleasant evening being spent by those in attendance.

Mrs. Bert Cole, who has been seriously ill for some time past, is now recovering, thanks to the unremitting care and attention of Dr. Norcross. Her condition at one time was a source of great anxiety to her friends.

Saturday, April 26, at the millinery and fancy goods store of Butters & Wilmet, a large line of spring jackets will be shown from the reliable house of Gilman's, Newport, Vt. One day only, Saturday April 26. See advt.

Rev. A. L. Cooper left here Tuesday morning for the seat of the Vermont Annual Conference, held at Brattleboro. Rev. J. D. LeGros of the New Hampshire Conference will supply the pulpit next Sunday in the absence of Rev. Mr. Cooper.

We acknowledge with thanks the receipt of several papers from our former townsmen, H. W. Bishop. He is now in Alabama, the proprietor of a large hotel there, and is evidently enjoying a flourishing business. Success to you Harvey.

Mrs. A. H. Hall will have her millinery opening Friday and Saturday of this week, at her residence, to which all the ladies of Island Pond and vicinity are invited, and they can be assured of witnessing an elegant display of fashionable millinery.

F. D. Hale of Lunenburg, the census "abstractor" spent last Sunday in town in order to commence his census work bright and early Monday morning. It may surprise his Lunenburg friends to hear that he attended church here three times that day, nevertheless such is the case.

WANTED. A copy of a sacred vocal music tune called "Cephass." Is known to be in the book entitled "Carmena Sacra." A favor will be conferred by anyone who can supply a copy. It is wanted for the Old

W. P. STEVENS, Secretary.

Geo. Bartlett, son of our old friend J. M. Bartlett, of Minneapolis, is visiting in town once more, meeting as of yore a most cordial reception from his host of friends. George is accompanied this time by his wife, who we welcome to Island Pond, and trust she will have a pleasant and enjoyable visit.

The senior class have selected Swan, the Norway photographer, to take the class pictures. Mr. Swan will be here for a few days during the month of May to do the class work. Special rates will be given the class, and all other members of the school who may wish to have work done at that time.

Five dollars and costs, in all $10.25 was the penalty imposed by Justice Parsons last Monday upon one of our young men for assaulting night station agent Sedgwick. It is hoped this lesson will prove effective. There is far too much rowdiness about the station, and the authorities are determined to put a stop to it.

The results of the Teachers' examinations recently held here by the county supervisor was most gratifying; not only to those who participated, but to all who are connected with the school. Eight young ladies, members of the Junior and senior classes of our high school went through the examination with an average of 83 per cent out of a possible 100 per cent. We doubt if a better showing could be made by scholars of any school in the State.

As previously announced, the anwill be held in the Island Pond Hall next week, commencing Monday even-

The gold watch contest will be decided on Wednesday. The fair will the purpose of drawing all the articles to be disposed of by ticket, in addition to which a concert will be given. No public generally are very cordially invited.

Now look out for moths in clothing.
Do not take any chances with sewing, broken camphor, or cheap tanning bags, but buy a Chest made of selected aromatic cedar. It lasts forever, has 18 cubic feet of storage space and will contain everything that you wish to pack away. The price has been reduced to $18 by Paine's Furniture Co., 43 Canal street, Boston.

to be named?

House cleaning time is near at hand, and every good house wife will want to lay in a supply of Pearline and Scapolite, which can be procured at the store of A. U. Vallee & Co.

We hope every reader will notice what is said in the advt. on page 3 headed "A favor to ask of you." If this company has given you a prime article you ought not to hesitate to grant them the favor they ask.

Mrs. Cades, of the firm of Butters & Wilmet, is in market this week according to new millinery, etc., which it is expected will be ready for inspection some time next week, when the firm's customary fine display will be made.

The Roman Catholics fair next week is said to be a very pleasant affair.
An unusually excellent bill of fare has been provided, and the fair sex will undoubtedly be on hand with their several little enterprises to swell the church fund, but there is no fear of admission.

Mr. Thomas Craine advertises in another column a very desirable and pleasantly located farm in the village of Groveton, N. H. It will be sold at a bargain, Mr. Craine being unable to devote any time or attention to it. It is just the beau ideal of a farm for a small family. See advt.

one hand and showing it all sorts of attention by reason of getting it too near the saw in Allen's mill one day last week.

J. G. Flanders has been on the sick list for a week past, but is now better.

There were no services in the M. E.
Church Sunday last.

W. B. Cook has taken possession of the West Stewartstown House. We have lost a good citizen and Stewart-town has a good landlord.

There is to be built, at the Falls, the coming summer, a large dressing mill and box shop, also several new dwelling houses. This will make quite an addition to the new village.

Mr. L. E. Quimby and his bride returned from their wedding tour Saturday looking contented and happy, as they have reason to be. Mrs. Quimby is not an entire stranger here having made many friends during her stay here in the past who will be glad to welcome her here as a permanent resident among us. The happy couple start out with the best wishes of their many friends, that they may have abundant prosperity in all things.

GRATIFYING TO ALL.

The high position attained and the universal acceptance and approval of the pleasant liquid fruit remedy Syrup of Figs, as the most excellent laxative known, illustrate the value of the qualities on which its success is based and are abundantly gratifying to the California Fig Syrup Company.

Granby.

April 15.—Sugar makers have been very busy of late.

Mr. L. A. Shore out and felled seven thousand feet of spruce lumber the first day of April. Who can do a better day's work!

Mrs. Adolphus Porrell made a visit to her friends at Stevens' mill last week. She is spending her time very pleasantly among her relatives in Burke and friends in Granby while her husband is getting ready to move to their new home in Maine.

Mrs. Joseph LeClair went to St.
Johnsbury recently to visit her father, Mr. Antoine John, and her sister, Mrs.
Paul Rivers.

Miss Elva Smith, teacher in No. 4, Victory, is from West Burke.

The Listers were on the way-path most of last week.

Mr. F. D. Hale was at our Town Clerk's one day last week to gain information for the census report.

Mr. Pease of Gallup's mill gave a box party not long ago, and Mrs. E.
W. Carpenter gave a sugar party last Friday evening. Both were to get funds for our minister, but we have not learned how much was obtained.

Methuen, Mass., are visiting at Rev. A.
B. Hopkins.

Mrs. Florence Frye is visiting her mother, Mrs. C. S. Smith.

Lunenburg.

April 15.—Seliden G. Smith has purchased the Dalton Ferry, and all the land on the Vermont side of the river owned by the late Mr. Clement for $1500.

Mrs. Cheney accompanied her daughter, Mrs. Dr. Adams, to her new home in Derby, and I will remain there a few weeks.

The sugar season seems to be about played out, much to the sorrow of those who have just got fairly under headway. A poor sugar season was anticipated, and now it is fully realized.

Mrs. L. W. Harris was quite sick last week at Mr. Wright's, preventing her returning home as expected.

Mr. Charles Morgan and Irving Blood we suppose are by this time west of the Mississippi, on their way to the far north west.

Nelson Farr is talking of moving back to South Lunenburg. His business is rather too far away from home to be remunerative.

Mr. Geo. Richardson has rented his farm and gone to Sugar Hill in Lisbon, N. H., where he has taken a large farm.
We are sorry to have him go; we need all our good people to remain in town.

Instant relief for crop, by using Johnson's Anodyne Liniment internal as well as external.

Norton.

April 15.—A M Stetson is in town.

Mr. Edwards of Boston is stopping at the Stetson House.

John A. Stetson, and Mr. J. Reid have come again to spend the summer here. Johnny is well, and a great favorite here.

The Stetson House is full of boarders and many have to be turned away for want of room.

The shippers of lumber have been much troubled to get cars, and the question is what are the Grand Trunk people doing to help them. Perhaps this state of affairs will be changed when we get the new railroad here.

The granite quarry men are at work and new men are coming every day.
Stanhope is booming.

Il Marsh has finished logging.
The river is nearly free from ice and log driving will soon begin. A good season for driving logs will give our steam mill a sufficient amount of logs for the season's sawing.

A new mail route is to be established between Norton and Canaan, with daily stage, also two new post offices, one at Averill, and one at Green's Mill. These and our present railroad from Rock Island to Norton will be a big thing for Norton.

Three of the Swedish families have arrived, and more are expected in a few days.

day.

Yarmouth, Me., has returned to his old position as book-keeper at the Nathaniel Lumber Co.'s store.

The spring term of school will begin the 21st of April. Mr. Henry Felt will teach in the higher department and Miss Dell 2 Our ask in the lower.

Mr. W. H. Lovejoy was in Portland
last week.

Col. U. G. Sweet went to Boston Monday.

The Fair in aid of the Church of the Sacred Heart was a success in every sense of the word. The proceeds far exceeded expectations, being $1153.58.
There were many fine articles, the most of them being sold by ticket.
The hall was decorated very prettily, and the tables were tastefully arranged.
The candidates for the gold watch were Miss Mary Finnegan of Island Pond, who had $199.89, and Miss Mary Tolland, who had $106.61. Everyone seemed to take hold and try and make the Fair a success, and they certainly succeeded.

Saturday, April 26, at the millinery

The water is rising rapidly and appearances indicate that it will be higher than common.

To the Editor of the HERALD:
In your issue of the 10th last I find an article written in the interest of Hon. C. S. Page in which it is stated that if he (Page) is elected, his administration will be free from any favor to rings, &c. Similar statements appear in the columns of the State press hostile to Col. Woodbury, coupled with allusion to the alleged fact that the majority of the people of this State are irrevocably opposed to the promotion of the Lieutenant Governor to the position of chief executive.

As an old subscriber to your paper, and a Republican, I crave space for the purpose of "speaking light" against the gubernatorial question, first presiding that my inquiries are for the purpose of eliciting the facts of the matter and for no other object.

First. From the reference to the prospective administration of Mr. Page, previously quoted, as well as from articles in other papers favorable to his candidacy, the inference is unavoidable that Col. Woodbury is not in favor of Page, so called, but that he is a member thereof in good standing and intends to reap whatever benefits may accrue from such organization, all of which, it is also stated, would be contrary to the best interests of the State. If this be the case the facts must be known to the papers making the charges and it should be a new matter to substantiate them.
Therefore, I beg to ask: Is it within your knowledge that Col. Woodbury, either before, during, or since the last session of the Legislature inspired or encouraged any act dishonorable to himself or inimical to the interests of the people generally? Is there a blot on his record as a private citizen, as a legislator, and as a member of the city of Burlington, or in connection with the office of Lieutenant Governor, unfitting him for the highest position in the gift of the Commonwealth? If not, whence the consistent objection to his advancement, raised by the common rules governing faithful service, and by the belief which seems to have met with general acceptance that in intellectual equipment Col. Woodbury is at least the equal of Mr. Page?

Secondly, Within the limits of Essex county, (and the same is true of every county in the State), a number of men may be found who, having rendered faithful service in the minor town offices have been selected by their fellow citizens as their representatives in the House and Senate, the fruits of promotion being thereby constantly recognized and followed. And is it not a fact that attention has been directed to Mr. Page's record as Finance Inspector, and the point sought to be established that the faithfulness displayed therein was a guarantee of like fidelity to duty in the more exalted position to which he aspired? In what respect does this practice differ from that urged in Col. Woodbury's behalf? And is it within the province of a political convention, called for a stated purpose, to attempt to define the future limits of any man's honorable ambition?

Furthermore, I have to ask, should the record of Col. Woodbury's service in the war for the Union weigh in the balance to his advantage or should it be set aside with general acceptance that in intellectual equipment Col. Woodbury is at least the equal of Mr. Page?

In conclusion, permit me to say that an acquaintance of twenty years has led me to consider him as a man of right adherence to principle, and of high Christian character, and I am loath to believe at this late day that I have made an erroneous estimate. If so, however, will you kindly state wherein that I, with others, may be enabled to act intelligently at the forthcoming primaries.

to ask of you this favor, should you feel that they are worthy of merit, kindly say a word in their behalf to your dealer now, and ask for another pair next season.

Railroads in Guatemala. A contract has been made between the government of Guatemala and Henry L. F. Cutts, the representative of a French syndicate, for the construction of the Northern Railroad of Guatemala, extending from the capital to the Atlantic Ocean. This line will connect with the Central Railroad, running between the capital and the Pacific Ocean, and in this complete the international route across the republic. The French company will place at the disposal of the government $2,500,000 gold.

With this money the nation will purchase the Guatemala Central Railroad, valued at $3,000,000, in Guatemala coin, and with the remainder the company will construct the Northern Railroad, with the necessary wharves at the seaports, stations, etc. Ten millions of francs will be employed in establishing an agricultural mortgage bank, as a guarantee of the payment of principal and interest of this loan the French company will receive a mortgage on the tax on spirituous liquors.

The government will control and manage the railroad and banking institutions as national property, the national treasury profiting by the gains or bearing the losses. The construction of these railroads will probably lead to an immediate rise in the value of lands which are now uncultivated and to an influx of immigrants.
